Norden Farm believes the arts have the power to change lives

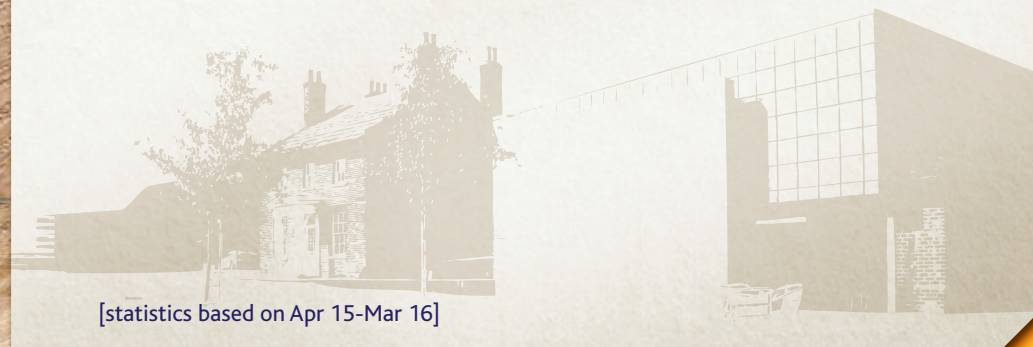

'The Farm Out programme provides curriculum enrichment for our children in a way that they might not otherwise be able to access'
Boyn Hill Infants School

'A real highlight for us as a family and we really appreciate the work and thought Norden Farm takes'
Jump In! Festival 2016

Your support keeps our creative HeART beating

- Over 38,000 people a year watch live performances
- More than 17,000 people come to see films every year
- Over 23,000 people take part in our community programme, comprising groups and classes for adults, children and young people
- We work with 18 Primary and 5 Secondary schools providing training in a wide range of arts activities
- We have enabled 8 local schools to design and build living sculptures in their school grounds
- The young leadership programme offers the opportunity for local young people to gain new skills and work experience
- It costs over £600,000 a year to run Norden Farm
- We support over 200 volunteers
- Over 10,000 participants take part in our schools and community projects, including a town centre lantern parade and month of workshops, a family arts festival and a summer long beach
- We raise over £80,000 to deliver our education and outreach work
