Information about the class:

Using the subtle, almost monochromatic colour palettes of winter – umbers, blues, coloured neutrals - we will look at ways to capture the atmosphere of a winter landscape using a variety of acrylic techniques. A basic knowledge of acrylics is desirable.

Aims and objectives:

To explore colour and work towards a finished piece.

Materials and any additional costs:

- Sketches / photos / source material
- Drawing pencil, water jars, kitchen roll
- Variety of brushes (soft / bristle, whatever you have)
- Acrylic paints: Primaries plus whatever else you may have
- Watercolour paper or canvas or acrylic paper – whatever you like to work on
- Mixing palette (old plate is fine – something with a bit of flat surface area)
- Notebook

Clothing: Apron / old shirt

Tutor biography:

Karen is an enthusiastic and experienced tutor specialising in printmaking and acrylics. Her method of teaching is both informal and instructional, aiming to bring out everyone's creativity in an encouraging and friendly atmosphere. Having studied design and illustration at art college she worked for many years as a commercial artist. She now divides her time between teaching and pursuing her own work, with involvement in exhibitions, studio trails, residencies and private commissions.
